Website Terms and Conditions

Terms governing use of the Rosethorn Boat Builders website

Last reviewed: 2 November 2026

These terms apply when you use the Rosethorn Boat Builders website. By continuing to use the website, you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, please stop using the website.

1. About the website

The website is operated by Rosethorn Boat Builders, a UK boatbuilding and floating-space business based in County Durham. Before publication, insert the full legal entity name, business address and company number where applicable.

2. Website information is general

The website presents general information, concepts, examples and marketing material. It does not constitute a binding quotation, technical specification, planning opinion, legal advice, financial advice or promise that a particular project is suitable for a site.

Dimensions, layouts, images, concepts and descriptions are illustrative unless expressly incorporated into a signed agreement.

3. Bespoke projects and contracts

Every project depends on the intended use, location, dimensions, access, utilities, delivery route, approvals and agreed specification.

No contract for design, manufacture, fit-out, delivery or other services is formed merely by using the website, sending an enquiry or receiving general information. A binding contract arises only through the agreed quotation or contract process.

4. Prices and availability

Any indicative price, timescale or availability shown on the website may change and is not binding unless confirmed in writing as part of an agreed quotation or contract. Taxes, delivery, specialist equipment, approvals and third-party services may be additional where stated.

5. Permissions and suitability

Customers and site operators are responsible for ensuring that the proposed location and use have the necessary marina, landlord, navigation, planning, licensing, safety, insurance and regulatory approvals, except where a written agreement expressly assigns a specific responsibility to Rosethorn.

Professional advice may be required. Website content should not be relied upon as confirmation that permission will be granted.

6. Intellectual property

Unless stated otherwise, website text, branding, graphics, photographs, designs, concepts, downloadable material and code are owned by or licensed to Rosethorn Boat Builders.

You may view and print reasonable extracts for personal evaluation of Rosethorn services. You must not reproduce, modify, sell, publish or commercially exploit material without prior written permission.

7. User submissions

If you send plans, photographs, dimensions, branding, specifications or other material, you confirm that you have the right to provide it and that Rosethorn may use it to assess and discuss the enquiry.

Do not send unlawful, infringing, confidential third-party or malicious material. Confidentiality requirements should be agreed before sensitive information is supplied.

8. Acceptable use

You must not misuse the website, attempt unauthorised access, introduce malware, interfere with operation, scrape content at scale, impersonate another person or use the website for unlawful activity.

9. Links to other websites

External links are provided for convenience. Rosethorn does not control third-party websites and is not responsible for their availability, content, privacy practices or services. A link does not necessarily imply endorsement.

10. Website availability and changes

Rosethorn may update, suspend or withdraw website content without notice. Reasonable efforts may be made to maintain availability, but uninterrupted or error-free access is not guaranteed.

11. Liability

Nothing in these terms excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

Subject to that, Rosethorn is not responsible for losses caused solely by reliance on general website content, website unavailability, third-party links, or events outside reasonable control. Consumer statutory rights are not affected.

12. Privacy and cookies

Personal information is handled in accordance with the Privacy Policy. Cookies and similar technologies are addressed in the Cookie Policy and website consent controls.

13. Changes to these terms

Rosethorn may update these terms. The version in force when the website is used will apply to that use. Material changes should be dated clearly.

14. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales. If you are a consumer, mandatory rights and any courts available under applicable consumer law are unaffected. Business disputes are subject to the courts of England and Wales unless otherwise agreed in writing.
